Boston. Aug 12. 1837.

Saturday evening.

Dear Lucia,

I shall write you but a few lines because it is quite late, but as I have so good a chance I cannot omit writing a few. I learn by a letter received the other day from Debora that you are now with Maria. I am having the best of times, as you may suppose. On Wednesday last, though it was a pouring rain, we all started to Westford, and notwithstanding the rain, found an audience of 300 assembled, or I believe though it was only 250. Sarah & Angelina both spoke. We took tea with the brethren there & had a very good time & more goodies than I could possibly describe. On Friday, the weather was lovely & we went to Littleton. Near 400 were present. Angelina only spoke, & I have not heard her do so well since she has been in this part of the county. We likewise took tea there & had a fine time. Tomorrow they go to Boxboro' at the Rev Mr Cross' request, who is a brother beloved, but whether I shall go with them or not is doubtful. Stanton is coming up here on Monday I hoped you – but you could not, I was going to propose you should write by him, but he will probably leave very early on Monday. He lectures here Monday evening. On Tuesday, the meeting of the County A. S. Society takes place, & I think it like I may attend. I may return to Boston Wednesday, most like I shall but I cannot exactly say. On Thursday afternoon

I rode over to Pepperell horseback & went alone too. I had no difficulty whatever but had a very good time. Found Mary Ann well; she thinks of returning to Boston the first of the week. I am going to send this letter by Harriet Frothingham. I have got so as to like her very much. She is really a very pretty good sort of a girl. Tell Maria that the camp in this part of the world remains in statu quo. The Fitch party must, I think in the end come to nought.

The Grimke's are coming down on Monday, but will probably go directly out to Brookline.

Love to Henry Maria, & the baby.

ever yours

Anne.
